ARCA driver Alli Owens will show you her car and talk about what it takes to race in a professional series.

Work with your team getting hands-on experience deciding what gears and tires will make you go fastest.

Play relays while learning about safety equipment used in racing.

Receive a special invitation from Daytona 500 Experience speaker.

Mark your calendar for two follow up events:

- Go see Alli race at Daytona February 6th. Children 12 and under are free and there will be a discount offered for adults.
- See the Women in Racing exhibit and spend the night at Daytona International Speedway March 20th

Outcomes:

- Discover 3: Girls gain practical life skills
- Discover 5: Girls develop critical thinking
- Connect 2: Girls promote cooperation and team building
